It's totally not cool to wear a rugby shirt during the Sevens weekend—better to run with the crowd and dress up as Snow White or a 70s porn star. But if you want a souvenir of the weekend and a stolen plastic jug simply doesn't cut it, pick up an official Sevens rugby shirt as a keepsake. Traditional rugby shirts are fraught with significance, from the stripes (called hoops) to the colors (depends on the team, nation and sponsor) to the rubber buttons (to protect the wearer in the event they pop off). Get kitted out in replica jerseys, t-shirts, polos, sweatshirts and more at the official Hong Kong Sevens Shop (Basement, Shop 47, The Landmark, 15 Queen's Rd. Central, 2328-2400, www.kukrisports.com/hk-shops). And if you're really desperate for some gear, sporting goods store Escapade Sports is even closer to the stadium (1/F, 19 Leighton Rd., Causeway Bay, 2891-1855).
